Since Father Jim was invested in the priest retreat this week, here is a word from Catholic Culture.org.

The rediscovery of the value of one's baptism is the basis of the missionary commitment of every Christian, because we see in the Gospel that he who lets himself be fascinated by Christ cannot do without witnessing the joy of following in his footsteps. In this month of October, especially dedicated to the mission, we understand even more that, in virtue of baptism, we have an inherent missionary vocation.

We invoke the intercession of the Virgin Mary so that missionaries of the Gospel will multiply. Intimately united to the Lord, may every baptized person hear that he is called to proclaim the love of God to all, with the testimony of his own life.

—Angelus Address, Pope Benedict XVI, October 29, 2006

Apologies for no Thursday mass this previous week, as it conflicted with the priest retreat.

THIS THURSDAY Oct. 31st will be All Souls Mass at St Thomas Cemetery at 6pm. Prayers at each gravesite will begin at 5pm.

You must strive with all possible care to please God in such a manner as neither to do nor behold anything, without first consulting Him, and in everything to seek Him alone and His glory.
