While Father Jim is on vacation, here is a word from USCCB (catholicculture.org)

The Gospel is from St. Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48. There are two very practical lessons we must learn from today's Gospel: the grave obligation we have of not causing scandal to our fellow-Christians or indeed to any man or woman and secondly, the willingness we should have to sacrifice any earthly possession which is a cause of sin to us.

—Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

IN HONOR OF THE FEAST OF SAINT FRANCIS, Religious Education will be Praying a Rosary in the Saint Thomas Cemetery starting 9AM Oct 6th. Join us!

So valuable to heaven is the dignity of the human soul that every member of the human race has a guardian angel from the moment the person begins to be.

- St. Jerome (347-420),
Theologian, Confessor, Feast Day September 30

He is best known for his translation of the Bible into Latin (the translation that became known as the Vulgate) and a legend about him taming a lion.
